Sec. 10-14. - Registration required to enter private property; violation.

(a) No person who wishes to go from one (1) place of human habitation to another offering any item for sale, other than newspapers and fresh farm products, shall go in, to or upon private property in the county for the purpose of the sale of goods, wares, merchandise or services or for the soliciting of orders for the purchase of goods, wares, merchandise or services, unless expressly requested or invited by the owner or occupant of the private property, or such individual shall first have registered with the sheriff of the county or his designee.

(b) Each such person shall have obtained a business license for such activities as required by chapter 8 of the county Code before registration, and shall provide the sheriff or his designee proof of the same at the time of registration.

(c) Each person shall furnish to the sheriff or his designee his/her name, age, current address and place of permanent residence, the name of his/her employer, if any, vehicle identification and driver's license, and the purpose for which they desire to go upon such premises. The sheriff may require other information regarding such person and his/her business for the purpose of identification and monitoring.

(d) Those activities exempted from this article are those conducted on behalf of a governmental or nonprofit charitable, civic or religious organization.

(e) Nothing herein shall grant a peddler or itinerant merchant permission to enter private property that is posted to prohibit solicitation or trespassing.

(f) Violation of this section shall constitute a class 4 misdemeanor.
